

Douglas Lawrence

House Concert

Saturday March 26, 7:00 pm at Nancy and Jerry Bell's

Kendall Tavern

746 West Street, Leominster 01453

$20 donation at the door

For more information, call Bob Schecter at 508/820/7789

Douglas Lawrence, a distinguished student of the legendary Hector MacAndrew, has won all of the major fiddle competitions, both as a player and composer. After studying at the Royal Scottish Academy of Music and Drama, he played with the Scottish National Orchestra for many years. "Dougie" has broadcast widely, played with Yehudi Menuhin, and represented Scotland in the 1978 Commonwealth Arts Festival. He has been a judge of the Regional fiddle competition at the New Hampshire Highland Games and a teacher at the Boston Harbor Fiddle School. This is his second annual concert at the Kendall Tavern.

Workshop with Douglas Lawrence

Sunday, March 27, 1:30–3:30 at the Home of Ann Lambertus
29 Highland Avenue, Lexington. $20 at the door
Call Bob Schecter at 508/820/7789 to register

Private Lessons with Douglas Lawrence

Available at selected times during Dougie's March 22–29 visit. Call Barbara McOwen at 781/648/3955 to book.